

Abraham Rossell

January 27, 1947 - May 7, 2025

Abraham passed away after enduring a long illness, surrounded by love and care.

He is survived by his beloved wife of sixty years, Dorina Rossell, and their daughters, Judy Obregon and Frances Guzman, along with her husband, George.

Abraham cherished time spent with family, found joy in homecooked meals, and loved nothing more than seeing his grandchildren smile. His presence at church brought him peace, and his strength throughout life was an inspiration to all who knew him. A bright light in every room, Abraham's sharp wit and sense of humor will be fondly remembered. His journey on this Earth was marked by unwavering love, compassion, kindness, and a deep, abiding faith in God. Abraham had a heart for service, quietly helping the homeless — both human and canine. His legacy lives on in the values he instilled in his family, the wisdom he shared, and the lives he touched with his empathy and care. Abraham's greatest legacy was his family — the heart of everything he did and all that he believed in.

In lieu of flowers, the family invites you to honor his memory by supporting his daughter Judy's rescue mission:

“ Remembering Abraham in my younger years, I remember him being a grandfather to my son Adrian picking him up, taking him to go mow lawns, I would watch them walk away, and he would have Adrian ride along on the lawn mower. I remember that my father-in-law was a huge part of my son Adrian getting baptized. Not only once but twice, he was a believer of Christ. May Abraham be forever in the Lords presence. May his memory of being a loving grandfather, shine bright, may he rest in peace. I'm sending my condolences to the whole Rossell family.
