

Carlos Munoz

November 25, 1976 - September 14, 2023

With deepest sorrow, we announce that Carlos Munoz, age 47 of Fort Worth, Texas, passed suddenly on September 14, 2023, while in the hospital fighting an unexpected diagnosis of Leukemia.

Those who knew Carlos just a little know that the world has lost a good one. Carlos "Big Boy" was a fun, loving, jokester who could make anyone laugh. He was a caring man who gave his heart to anyone he encountered. Carlos would make sure that anyone he was in front of felt as if they were family, and better take a shot! He was a man who could light up a room with his smile and personality. Had a lot of charisma. His friends want to make sure that he is remembered as the man who would call you Fat Ass or any made up name that came to his mind. He had nothing but love for you and loved everyone in his path with all his heart. He was passionate and a true fan of the Dallas Cowboys, always wanting to place a $100 bet even if he knew he was going to lose. Carlos will always be remembered as a funny, hilarious, hardworking, talented,

inspiring, and loving man who will NEVER be forgotten.

Carlos is preceded in death by his father Isaac Munoz Sr. and brother Isaac Munoz Jr.

Carlos is survived by his mother Emilia Munoz, brothers Robert Lopez, Benjamin Ramirez, Humberto Munoz, Fernando Munoz, and son Xavier.

In Carlos request all friends and family will be wearing Dallas Cowboys attire.

Services will be held at Amalla Funeral Home at 5210 McCart Ave, Fort Worth, Texas 76115 on Thursday, September 21, 2023 from 3 pm to 8 pm and the Funeral services will start on Friday, September 22,2023 at 12 pm at Amalla Funeral Home.

“ Fly in Peace Carlos. You will be missed and forever remembered by me. Definitely one of the coolest cats around that I've had the pleasure of knowing for 33 years. You surprised me in a good way when you apologized after all these years. It meant more than you know. Thank you for the Mother's Day card and Christmas cards. It was thoughtful of you. I'll never forget you.

"Got Me Loving You - Cheree"

Sending warm thoughts and love to the Munoz familia.

“ You already know - my soul spoke to yours so we will always be good. Doesn't matter. I appreciated the laughs, the memories, the old times. When everyone was still here. I had every intention on reaching out the night before but I know between us it is understood. I will always be your cungle- aka soo yung. You know Juju was probably happy to see you. Lucky asses. I know you always kept that ❤️ for me. Your place in my life will always carry weight. Only the good wonderful things need to be remembered. I'm sorry and I'm happy you are free. - Cheena
