“ Olvera Family, I met Cirlio January of 2011. We instantly formed a relationship/friendship. I remember one time, we were on a job site. I was doing a safety inspection. One of his guys had a baseball helmet on, as in one that you would put ice cream in. lol. Cirlio and I laughed for years!!

His work ethic was top tier, he talked about his wife and kids all the time. I was blessed to be friends with him on facebook and got to see his kids grow in Karate, and also Cirlio in his fitness. He will be missed by many. To his wife and kids: Your husband/father, one a one of a kind man. He will always be with you.
