

John E. Cerda

August 5, 1951 - February 1, 2022

John E Cerda, 70, of Ft. Worth, TX went to be with the Lord on February 1, 2022. John was born on August 5, 1951 in Monterrey, Mexico to Juan and Sarah Cerda. John truly had a childlike joy and love of life. He was wonderfully unique and always made the best out of any situation.

John loved spending time with his grandkids more than anything. He loved to tell stories and write songs and poems. He enjoyed dancing, singing, and playing the guitar. He liked riding bikes, and anything else on wheels. You could be sure to find John with ripstick in hand, trying a new trick.

Above all, John was passionately in love with the Lord Jesus Christ and he touched so many people by confessing his love for the Lord and spreading the Word of God.

He is survived by his wife Tina, his dad Juan Cerda, his brothers and sisters Christine Waldrup, Alma & Ron Hall, Amy & Juan Palacios, Emil & Rosa Cerda, Adam Cerda & Whitney Bishop, Martin & Sylvia Cerda.

He is also survived by his children Krista & Robert Richard, Blossom & Randy Shaffer, John & Karen Cerda, Paul Cerda, and Melanie & Ruben Marioni, as well as step-children Philip Cornell, Lydia & Reginald Thomas, and Stephen & Henna Cornell.

His precious grandchildren include Paris & Jet Richard, Grace, Sarah & Abigail Shaffer, Eleanor, Beckner & Margot Cerda, Marcus & Cara Cerda, Robin, Raven & Renly Marioni, Nehemiah & Esther Thomas and Aletheia Cornell. It should also be noted that John had a rich spiritual family made up of believers spread far and wide.

He is enjoying a heavenly reunion with his mother, Sarah Cerda and his son, Marcus Cerda.

We will gather to celebrate John's life on Saturday, February 19 at Amalla Funeral Home, 5210 McCart Ave, Ft. Worth TX. Visitation from 1-5pm with words of remembrance from the family at 1 pm.

Those who loved John are also invited to a gathering that evening at 6pm for food and fellowship at the meeting hall of the church in Ft Worth, 4066 Kingsridge Rd, Ft. Worth.

“ We will always have such pleasant memories of John for his humor and his positivity. We will always remember his non-judgmental, uncomplaining ways and for his endurance in suffering yet never giving up. But mostly we will remember his love for singing and enjoying the Lord in simplicity. What a treasure we had amongst us?

“ Many will remember John Cerda as a beloved family member, or as a dear friend and precious brother in the Lord, but above all else, John was a God-man who loved the Lord Jesus Christ and devoted his whole being to singing praises to Him, and ministering life to the members of His body! I am eternally grateful for the love and care that John and Tina demonstrated toward the believers here in Mineral Wells! I will always remember John with a song on his lips and a tune in his heart to cheer his fellow sojourners along the way! I look forward to rejoicing with John in full in the New Jerusalem! ❤️
