

Margaret Ortega Martinez

October 17, 1945 - February 24, 2026

Margaret Ortega Martinez, 80, passed away on February 24, 2026, in North Richland Hills, Texas. Margaret was a devoted mother and a strong-willed woman who cherished her family deeply. She is survived by her children: Nathaniel D. Martinez, Monica Martinez Dixon, Marcial J. Ortega, Michael Ortega, and Cynthia Molina Vinton. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Jose P. Martinez. Margaret found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved watching television shows and movies, spending time cooking for her family, and engaging in puzzle and word search games. Her nurturing spirit and caring nature left a lasting impression on all who knew her. She was a great source of wisdom and family history, who shared all she could with her grandchildren. A wake will be held at the family home to honor Margaret's memory and celebrate her life. Her memory will live on through her children, grandchildren and those that knew her.

Tribute Wall

GA

“ Our deepest condolences for the loss of your mom. Our prayers are with you during this difficult time. ”

Gracie Luna Aguirre - March 07 at 04:23 PM

CM

“ My condolences to my sister and brothers on the loss of our beloved mother. Though she may be gone, her memory and love will live on in hearts forever. ”

Cynthia Molina-Vinton - March 03 at 06:10 PM

MD

“ More pictures of our mom and my kids grandma ”

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 07:56 PM

MD

“ More pictures mom and family ”

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 06:34 PM

MD

“ Margaret Ortega Martinez, 80, passed away on February 24, 2026, in North Richland Hills, Texas.

Margaret was a devoted mother and a strong-willed woman who cherished her family deeply. She is survived by her children: Nathaniel D. Martinez, Monica Martinez Dixon, Marcial J. Ortega, Michael Ortega, and Cynthia Molina Vinton. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Jose P. Martinez.

Margaret found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved watching television shows and movies, spending time cooking for her family, and engaging in puzzle and word search games. Her nurturing spirit and caring nature left a lasting impression on all who knew her. She was a great source of wisdom and family history, who shared all she could with her grandchildren.

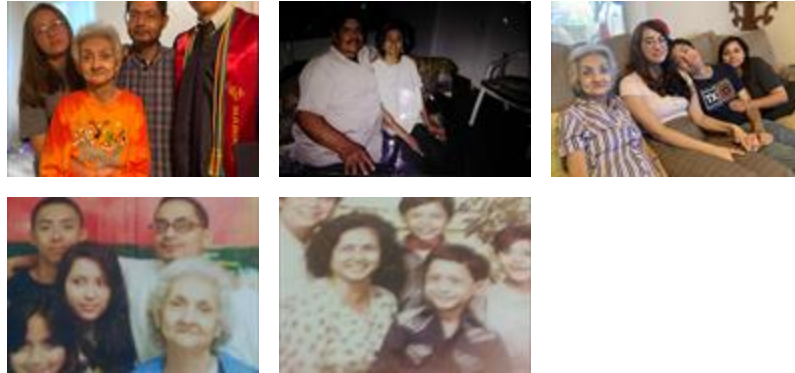

A wake will be held at the family home to honor Margaret's memory and celebrate her life. Her memory will live on through her children, grandchildren and those that knew her.

This what bri wrote

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 06:22 PM

MD

“ My mom with my brother and dad and grandkids

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 06:21 PM

NS

“ Nathaniel Martinez son purchased the Sweetest Sunrise Bouquet for the family of Margaret Ortega Martinez.

Nathaniel Martinez son - March 02 at 06:20 PM

NS

“ Nathaniel Martinez son planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Margaret Ortega Martinez.

Nathaniel Martinez son - March 02 at 06:20 PM

MD

“ My mom and grandma

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 06:15 PM

MD

“ *Love and miss you mommy from
Monica and David and Brianna and Thomas and Elizabeth love you so very much*

Monica Dixon - March 02 at 05:46 PM