“ I had the pleasure of knowing Mary through her daughter, Rebecca. She had a great sense of humor and I loved it when she made tortillas for us. My favorite memory of her was when she was so excited about getting some new chickens and we were trying to put together a giant pen for them (all of them had names). She was a tiny lady but made a big impress on me- especially with the lovely family she has blessed us with. May she rest in peace.
