“ My memories of my uncle is he was always very caring with us growing up. He always including us in everything he could. Specially those trips to Mexico those were fun. He always visited my dad on the weekends to go to the junk yards looking for parts to fix those old cars they had. They seemed to enjoy going to the junk yards. Lol. I didn't like going with them but sometimes ended up going. lol. My uncle was always on the run that's one thing I will always remember. My mom always use to tell him Ramon no need to be rushing! Lol. He always responded I have to go to more places. Lol! He was always caring for his sisters and brothers always was visiting them when he could. He use to visit my day mostly on the weekends sometimes during the week but weekends they use to hang out just talking for hours. Those are memories I will always remember him by. It's hard to say goodbye may you rest in peace Tio! We will miss you
