I met Teresita back in 2014 when I started working at dennys on glenveiw she was always so welcoming and understanding we became friends and back then her brother also worked there for a couple weeks last time I seen Teresita was March of last year when I was leaving Dennys and moving back home she gave me a hug and told me she'd miss me. We always had street tacos on Fridays. She was a super hard worker. I love her kids with everything she had.
