Victor Alonzo Zepeda

March 25, 1974 – March 29, 2026

Victor Alonzo Zepeda, born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, passed away on March 29, 2026, at the age of 52. He was a beloved son, brother, father, uncle, and grandfather—a man whose presence could be felt the moment he walked into a room. Victor was the cherished son of Ricardo Zepeda Jr. and Maria Guadalupe Zepeda, and a loving brother to Oscar Luis Zepeda. He was a proud and devoted father to Eric Zepeda, Victor Alonzo Zepeda Jr., Ricardo Zepeda, Lauren Bentley, and Mercedes Sepulveda, and an adoring grandfather to Sadie, Kayden, Kaysen, Klaire, Ryder, Blake, Emerald, Mia, Ivory, and Silas. He was also a beloved companion to Rose Torres and father-in-law to Todd Peace and Dalton Bentley. His love for his family ran deep and steady—unshaken, unconditional, and everlasting. He lived life with a spirit that was impossible to ignore. A true lover of football and a loyal Dallas Cowboys fan, Victor found joy in the game, but even more in the people he shared it with. He was a man of many trades, many stories, and many laughs. Known by many and loved by all, he carried humility in his heart and a magnetic energy that drew others close. He didn't just enter a room—he filled it with light, laughter, and life. To know Victor was to feel warmth, to hear laughter, and to be reminded of the beauty of connection. He had a way of bringing people together, making moments feel bigger, brighter, and unforgettable.

He was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Maria Guadalupe Zepeda, whom he carried in his heart always. Though he is no longer with us, his voice echoes in memories, his laughter lingers in our hearts, and his love lives on in every life he touched. His legacy is not only in what he leaves behind, but in the love that will continue to grow through his children, his grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know him.

Forever loved. Never forgotten. Always missed.

“ I keep thinking about how much he loved Kayden, Kaysen, and Klaire. Being a grandpa meant everything to him, and you could feel that in every moment he spent with them.

He was a true family man—if anyone needed him, he was there, no questions asked. That’s just who he was. Full of life, always talking, always joking, and definitely locked in on his Cowboys like it was personal 🥹

But more than anything, it was his love for his family that stood out. The way he showed up, the way he cared—you didn’t have to question it.

I find peace knowing he’s now with his grandma Maria in heaven. May he rest in paradise.

That love he had... it doesn’t leave. It stays with all of us forever. ☐

“ One thing I'll always remember is how my grandpa supported my football games and always cared about how I was doing. Before my last game, he told me he wasn't feeling very good and couldn't make it, and I told him it was okay because there would always be another game. He always showed he cared and wanted the best for me, and that meant a lot to me. I'll always remember his support and how much he loved me.
